Caribe Royale Orlando. Keep up to date by using our conference app. The support from our members has been inspirational and heart-warming as workshops, art forums, and demonstration sessions represent the highest level of professional learning in art education for the state of Florida. I am so proud of the work we have done to stay connected and work as a united team in maintaining excellence in our profession. This year we focus our attention on reuniting through collaboration both in-person and virtually. We are reconnecting as we share experiences and knowledge through inspirational conference sessions. Collectively we are recharging our spirit while embracing multiple perspectives on learning in and through the visual arts. Please take some time to enjoy the views and relax with colleagues around the state.

The poetry of the 19th century Romantic English poet, William Wordsworth, recites in my head while leading FAEA through the planning and preparation of multiple programs this past year.

*I wandered lonely as a cloud, That floats on high o'er vales and hills, When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils; Beside the lake, beneath the trees, Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.*

This represents the beautiful work of our members and volunteers, know that the FAEA Board of Directors are here to host your aesthetic moments in the workshops, at the museums, during the receptions, and especially at the Awards ceremony and Gala. Let the mending of our souls begin!

Our keynote, Hamilton Glass, will present some phenomenal work that he spear-headed in Richmond, Virginia during the pandemic. Richmond became an international site for social justice and artistic awakening through the Mending Walls project. Art has and will always be a source of healing during difficult times.

As we continue planning and implementing our programs, like the Mending Walls, consider how you can become part of Youth Arts Month. March has been designated as Youth Arts Month, but consider implementing group installations, exhibitions, and community events to highlight the essential nature of the visual arts at your school, in the community, and at the state level starting in January. Document your student's learning through participation in FAEA K-12 Art Exhibition and Assessment. Begin thinking about how Affect Theory can inform why you are an art educator and inspire you to dive deeply into your own meaning-making. Read more about Affect Theory by Jennifer Garcia, on our newly developed Research Corner on the website.

Our work at FAEA has been and continues to be informed by the volunteer work from our members. The Adaptive Arts Task Force and Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Task Force have influenced sessions at our conference, in addition to guiding the next iteration of the FAEA Strategic Plan. Your voice has been heard and FAEA is grateful for your continued support. Implementing the Creative Leadership Model with the board of directors engaged members in collaborative work with the realization that our vision is ever evolving at FAEA. Being open-minded, respectful, innovative, and providing positive support for new initiatives and different ways of thinking is at the heart of this subjective emergent experience in leadership. I thank the 2020-2021 Board of Directors for engaging with this model of leadership and for supporting me in this leadership position!

GOVERNMENT RELATIONS/ADVOCACY

2021 FAEA Conference

Welcome to the conference. We are so very excited to have the conference in-person at the Caribe Royale Orlando. There are outstanding sessions planned throughout this conference, so take advantage of this opportunity to interact with your colleagues and enjoy your professional development experience.

Advocacy and Government Relations

Know Your Decision Makers/Office Holders

In addition to your school administrative leadership team, learn the names and roles of district leaders as well. Commit to know more than your school board members' names. Get to know them personally. Invite your decision makers to your school art exhibitions.

2022 Legislative Session

Mark your calendars as the 2022 Florida Legislative Session begins January 11, 2022 and ends March 11, 2022. Bills are starting to be filed and the Center for Fine Arts Education (CFAE) staff and FAEA Advocacy Committee have begun their work on reviewing the bills to keep the membership informed. Please be prepared to step up and advocate for your visual arts students!

In addition, during the next few months, a meeting will be held with our lobbyists, representatives from Florida Art Education Association (FAEA), Florida Music Education Association (FMEA), and the Florida School Music Association (FSMA) to develop our legislative platform.

If you have a question or concern anytime throughout the legislative session, please contact Kathy Sanz kdsanz@faea.org. Support FAEA's advocacy effort by joining our Advocacy Committee by emailing info@faea.org.

Advocacy Messages and Resources

Professional Resources

- FAEA Advocacy Page. Bookmark this page and visit often. It has information and advocacy resources and is updated regularly.
- Americans for the Arts and the Arts Education Partnership – Make sure you are familiar with these two organizations. Take some time to look around these websites. Undoubtedly, you will find some articles and research for your advocacy resource file.

Advocacy Doable Deeds

Build an advocacy toolkit, grow your confidence by reviewing advocacy fundamentals, and take action! Commit to completing one of the following “doable deeds.”

- Set aside 15 minutes a week to research music and arts education advocacy and build your own advocacy file.
- Practice a 1, 2, and 5 minute advocacy speech sharing your passion for visual arts education.
- Schedule visits with your state representative and state senator to discuss the importance of visual arts education in your community and to ask for their support for the passage of the Florida Seal of Fine Arts.
- Enlist 2-3 other colleagues to work with you on advocacy efforts. Potential partners could be feeder schools or local organizations.
- Work with your district supervisor to build better advocacy infrastructure.

Division of Cultural Affairs Grant

The legislature agreed to partially fund the Division of Cultural Affairs grant that we requested for the 2021-2022 school year and we are thankful for that. We did receive more funding than last year, but not the full amount requested. We are sending thank you letters to key legislators and leadership on behalf of FAEA for their support of the Department of State, Division of Cultural Affairs grants. In addition, we have submitted a DCA grant for the 2022-2023 year and will know about the results this fall.

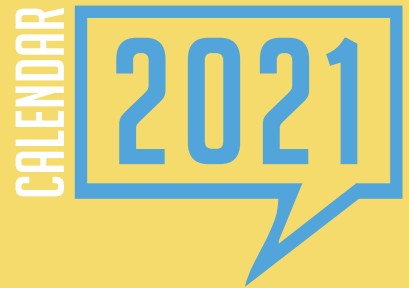

COVID-19

FAEA has been diligent about reviewing and implementing the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) recommendations in light of COVID-19 and variants. We worked with the Caribe Royale Orlando to provide as safe an environment as possible for the conference. Please follow all recommendations.

Be Involved, Be Engaged, and Be Active!!

October 14, 2021

Greetings and Welcome to Orange County.

It is my honor and privilege to welcome you to Orlando for the 2021 Florida Art Education Association Conference here at the Caribe Royale. FAEA has been planning and preparing for your arrival for many months. In keeping with this year's theme, we are excited to provide programming that invites you to "Reunite, Reconnect, & Recharge" with fellow art educators from across the state.

Here in Orange County, the arts are #ThePlaceForYou. With over 300 visual arts educators in our 205 schools, we are committed to providing high-quality arts education for all. "We believe that students of every race, ethnicity, and socio-economic situation, have the right to equitable access to arts education taught by certified visual and performing arts educators."

Our arts educators know they cannot do it alone. Orange County is proud to have strong partnerships with many organizations including local museums, galleries, arts organizations, and municipal governments that recognize the value and importance of arts education. While in Orlando, I encourage you to take advantage of the many arts experiences that available to you.

A special thank you to the Orange County Art Educators Association, OCAEA, whose members helped to support this year's conference. OCAEA has been promoting professional camaraderie and supporting its members for over 20 years and is here to help make your time rewarding and memorable.

We are thrilled to host this year's FAEA Conference and hope that you return home feeling "Reunited, Reconnected, and Recharged." Welcome to Orlando!

Item #00711

A woven tapestry with a dimensional surprise.

Students explore a historical weaving method with a twist in this hands-on lesson. Crayola Model Magic provides an excellent raised surface, and when adhered directly to the warp of a weaving, creates raised patterns. Some areas can be left unwoven to create further visual interest!

HAMILTON GLASS

Second General Session | Friday, October 15, 2021 | 4:30 - 6:00pm | Caribbean IV-V
Conference Session | Saturday, October 16, 2021 | 8:30 - 9:20am | Caribbean IV-V

Hamilton Glass
Mural
Richmond Cycle Corp
Richmond, VA

Hamilton Glass' career as an artist stems from his architecture and design background. Despite working in the architecture field for 7 years, his passion for public art pushed him to start a career as an artist. Public art has always been a big influence and inspiration to Hamilton, because of its power to influence and inspire the surrounding community. With every opportunity Hamilton is given to create, he tries to convey a message that connects his art to the community. Using his background in architecture, he creates images that reference architectural drafting practices, which are represented in the sharp lines, scale, and balance of the piece. The bright colors and unpredictable lines and shapes are used to convey energy and movement in each piece. Hamilton's work isn't just a singular canvas, print, or mural. One of the things he enjoys most is creating multi-layered projects that amplify many voices.

In 2020, Hamilton founded two large projects, Mending Walls and All In Together, which were created to address the civil unrest and pandemic raging in our country. This was a way for Hamilton to process current events, and share that opportunity for expression with others through art. Hamilton is always looking to use his art as an inspiration and healing tool in the community, as well as being a great example of a working black artist.
