

Why a Center for Fine Arts Education?

The Center for Fine Arts Education is an association management company that provides qualified professionals to manage the daily administration and planning for associations.

The cohesive working relationship between CFAE and its' association clients offers affordable, professional member services. CFAE provides contracted management services and special project contracts for clients and related entities.

CFAE staff expertise includes:

- Meeting and Event Planning
- Publishing
- Membership Services
- Strategic Planning
- Executive Management
- Not for profit Financial Management
- Social Media Development
- Public Relations
- Government Relations and Advocacy

The CFAE is responsible for the following costs:

- Payroll and Liabilities
- Employee Benefits
- Employee Professional Development
- Technology Equipment
- Property Maintenance
- Utilities

On average, associations save between 25-40% in overhead costs!

The CFAE is the perfect management company for an association because it relieves a lot of the daily stress that can come with operating a not for profit organization.

With less stress on the organization and its volunteers, more work can be done towards the association's mission!

For more information, contact Kathleen Sanz, PhD
Center for Fine Arts Education (kdsanz@cfaefl.org)