From the President's Palette

Dear FAEA Members:

The annual conference of the Florida Art Education Association (FAEA) has long been a wonderful opportunity for art educators from around the state to come together to share their experience, celebrate visual arts education, and gather new insights and approaches to further knowledge for the classroom. It's by no coincidence, then, that the conference occurs at the beginning of the school year when, as educators, we are looking forward to a fresh start, rested and ready for the journey through another academic year.

In many ways, each new year comes to us as a blank canvas, and an opportunity to create a variety of amazing possibilities with many different tools. For 62 years, FAEA's mission has been to create a community of visual arts educators in our state that help one another to see these possibilities and discover the tools, and the FAEA Annual Conference is vital to that mission. This year's theme, "A Blank Canvas: Make Your Mark!" is symbolic of the creative process that each of us experiences at the start of every year to challenge ourselves as artists and educators to inspire a love of the visual arts in our students and our communities.

Please join us in less than one month for the ultimate professional development for art educators. Now is the time to register and reserve your room. Looking forward to seeing you!

Karen Nobel
 FAEA President
